E. STANLEY KROENKE

Owner & Governor, Kroenke Sports Enterprises, LLC

Mr. E. Stanley Kroenke was officially introduced as the owner of the Denver Nuggets on July 6, 2000, and under his leadership, the Nuggets have enjoyed unprecedented success.

The Nuggets have returned to prominence with a remarkable turnaround this decade and are one of only four NBA teams to make the playoffs in each of the past six seasons, including last season's remarkable run to the Western Conference Finals.

Since taking control of the Nuggets, Colorado Avalanche and Pepsi Center, Mr. Kroenke has been widely recognized as one of the top owners in professional sports, as well as a strong and committed leader throughout the community.

Kroenke Sports Enterprises, Mr. Kroenke's Denver-based company, also owns Major League Soccer's Colorado Rapids and the National Lacrosse League's Colorado Mammoth. His teams have hosted the 2001 NHL All-Star Game, the 2004 and 2009 NLL All-Star Games, the 2005 NBA All Star Game and the 2007 MLS All-Star Game, bringing some of the world's most famous athletes to Denver.

KSE's dedication to success has been evidenced by the consistent playoff runs of its teams. The Avalanche has made the playoffs in 11 of its 13 seasons in Denver and defeated the New Jersey Devils in June 2001 to win the Stanley Cup, the second in franchise history. The Mammoth, which has made the playoffs in each of its seven seasons, won the NLL championship in 2006.

In February 2007, Mr. Kroenke purchased a significant stake in Arsenal FC. He owns more than 28 percent of London's storied football club. The initial investment came months after KSE and the Colorado Rapids formed a landmark marketing and strategic partnership with the famed club of England's Barclays Premier League. The relationship has been further strengthened by the completion of KSE's acquisition of 50 percent shareholding in Arsenal Broadband Limited. In September 2008, Mr. Kroenke was appointed to the Arsenal board as a non-executive director.

Under Mr. Kroenke's direction, KSE has completed some of the company's most ambitious projects to date. On April 7, 2007 KSE opened the largest soccer-specific complex in the world, Dick's Sporting Goods Park. The state-of-the-art sports facility is situated on more than 160 acres in Commerce City, Colo., and seats 18,000 fans for field sports and up to 27,000 people for concerts. The award-winning field at Dick's Sporting Goods Park has been heralded as "one of the finest pitches in the world" by numerous international players and coaches that have played at the complex. In November 2008, the stadium hosted Colorado's first-ever World Cup qualifier.

Dick's Sporting Goods Park also includes 24 surrounding playing fields for youth and adult recreational sports such as soccer, lacrosse and rugby. The complex anchors the 917-acre Prairie Gateway site that is a public-private partnership between Kroenke Sports Enterprises and Commerce City. The site also hosts the Commerce City municipal hall, retail facilities, offices for the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, and a visitors' center for the Rocky Mountain Arsenal Wildlife Refuge, among other entities. The project has created hundreds of jobs in the community and is expected to generate thousands more as the growth continues.

In September 2004, Altitude Sports & Entertainment, a 24-hour regional television network began operation, becoming the new television home for the Avalanche, Nuggets, Mammoth and Rapids. Altitude also features other professional, collegiate and high school sporting events, as well as outdoors and lifestyle programming, entertainment and community interest coverage from throughout the Rocky Mountain West.

Kroenke Sports Enterprises purchased Paramount Theater, a historic landmark in downtown Denver, in July 2002. The venerable theatre remains a vibrant, multi-event facility where Denver's residents and visitors enjoy a wide variety of entertainment options each year. Jointly, Pepsi Center and Paramount Theater are home to more than 250 events annually, ranging from world renowned concerts such as Madonna, Celine Dion and U2, to family shows, dance productions and charitable events.

As one of the most respected owners in professional sports, Mr. Kroenke's commitment to excellence has been obvious inside and outside of Pepsi Center since his arrival. Substantial amounts have been invested in improvements and additional attractions to enhance the entertainment experience for every visitor to the property.

In August of 2008, Pepsi Center played host to the Democratic National Convention. Tens of thousands of delegates, journalists, volunteers and patrons descended on Denver and Pepsi Center for the Convention.

The landmark event ranks as one of the most important in KSE and Colorado history. Millions of people around the world watched the Convention, which city officials estimated boosted the local economy by nearly $270 million. Denver Mayor John Hickenlooper went on to add, "Our expectations were definitely exceeded."

Mr. Kroenke's enthusiasm and vision ensure that Denver will continue to be the top entertainment destination in the Rocky Mountain region for generations to come. Local media outlets have consistently named Mr. Kroenke one of the most significant people in the Denver arts and entertainment community, saying, "No other person entertains more people more often."

One of KSE's primary focuses has always been the Colorado community and civic causes. More than $15.5 million in contributions have been made to Colorado charities through Kroenke Sports Charities and the Denver Nuggets and Colorado Avalanche Community Funds.

A native Missourian, Mr. Kroenke's emergence as a member of the St. Louis Rams' ownership was critical in the effort to return professional football to St. Louis in 1995. Under his guidance, the Rams flourished as Super Bowl XXXIV Champions and Super Bowl XXXVI runner-ups.

Mr. Kroenke is chairman and owner of THF Realty and The Kroenke Group, private real estate investment and development companies with properties located throughout the United States and Canada. Over the past two decades, he has built a reputation as one of the nation's leading real estate developers. One of the largest ranch property owners in North America, Mr. Kroenke's ownership stakes also includes the Screaming Eagle and Jonata vineyards.

Mr. Kroenke's current and former board and trustee memberships include Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., Central Bank Holding Company, Boone County National Bank, Community Investments Partnership of St. Louis, the College of the Ozarks, and the Missouri Basketball Hall of Fame. He is a member of St. Louis' Civic Progress, which provides support and leadership for various community improvements that promote economic development, education and quality of life. In February 2009, Mr. Kroenke was enshrined into the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame.

Mr. Kroenke holds undergraduate and graduate degrees from the University of Missouri. He and his wife, Ann, have a daughter, Whitney, an award winning documentary film producer, and a son, Josh, an executive with the Denver Nuggets.

KROENKE SPORTS ENTERPRISES

Kroenke Sports Enterprises is the Rocky Mountain West's leading provider of sports and live entertainment. Serving more than one million fans each year, Kroenke Sports and its partners operate a variety of venues that serve an array of entertainment options.

Kroenke Sports Enterprises Mission Statement - "Memories are played here."

Kroenke Sports Enterprises is committed to providing world class sports and entertainment for both live and broadcast audiences.
We will welcome fans into our venues as family, providing respect and care from the purchase of a ticket, to the drive home.
We will celebrate the best in sport and entertainment by recognizing the diversity and human spirit around us, and by working within our community to improve the lives of all those within the community.

NBA DENVER NUGGETS

For more than 30 years, the Denver Nuggets have represented the city and the region in the National Basketball Association. The Nuggets are the oldest NBA team in the mountain states region and have produced a number of All-Stars and Hall-of-Famers.

NHL COLORADO AVALANCHE

The one-time Quebec Nordiques moved to Denver in 1995, becoming the Colorado Avalanche.Since then, the team has won two Stanley Cup titles, two Presidents' Trophies, made six appearances in the Western Conference Finals and set an NHL record for consecutive home sellouts.

NLL COLORADO MAMMOTH

The Rocky Mountain region gained its first National Lacrosse League team in the summer of 2002 when Kroenke Sports Enterprises purchased the Washington Power and moved the team to Colorado. The team has never missed the playoffs and won the Champion's Cup in 2006.

MLS COLORADO RAPIDS

The Colorado Rapids have represented Denver's Major League Soccer fans since 1996. Boasting playoff-contending teams, the Rapids are playing in the new, 18,000-seat Dick's Sporting Goods Park.

PEPSI CENTER

See page 365 for Pepsi Center information.

DICK'S SPORTING GOODS PARK

Dick's Sporting Goods Park is the largest soccer-specific complex in the world. Home to the MLS Colorado Rapids, the 18,000-seat stadium is surrounded by 24 sports fields that host a variety of sports, from soccer and rugby, to Gaelic football and dodgeball. Dick's Sporting Goods Park is located in Commerce City, Colo.

PARAMOUNT THEATRE

Located just off of downtown Denver's 16th Street Mall, the Paramount Theater remains one of Denver's loveliest and most unique buildings. After nearly 70 years, the Paramount is the only one of Denver's original movie palaces still in operation. Kroenke Sports has committed to a 10-year plan for renovating and restoring the theatre to its original grandeur. In addition to films, the Paramount also hosts a variety of concerts and performances.

INOVATION GROUP

InOvation Group is one of the country's most renowned providers of theatrical services. The set design, lighting and construction division of Kroenke Sports Enterprises has won acclaim for staging live events like the HBO Comedy Arts Festival in Aspen, concert tours by the Gipsy Kings, Phish's Madison Square Garden shows and John Tesh's PBS appearance.

APC IMPRINTS

Altitude Profit Consulting is a KSE partner organization providing private label retail merchandise programs to major league, minor league, college sports teams and corporate sponsors. APC also provides sales skills and sales management training to a number of groups nationally.

ALTITUDE SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT

Seen in more than 2.5 million homes, Altitude is the television home of the Colorado Avalanche, Denver Nuggets, Colorado Mammoth, Colorado Rapids, Colorado Springs Sky Sox, Colorado Eagles, the Big Sky Conference, Metro State, ESPN Syndication (including Big XII Conference events), the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference and University of Northern Colorado as well as other local and regional sports and entertainment programming.

PLAYCLEAN

The Play Clean program is KSE's mission to provide "eco-friendly entertainment" to all of its visitors.
Pepsi Center, Colorado's largest indoor sports and entertainment venue, has become the first sports arena in the United States to claim "100 % Green" status by purchasing enough renewable energy to offset all electricity used at the arena. It is also a member of the Environmental Protection Agency's Climate Leaders program, an industry-government partnership that works to inventory and reduce greenhouse gas emissions on a company-wide basis to develop comprehensive climate change strategies.

PAUL ANDREWS

Executive Vice President - Kroenke Sports Enterprises

Paul Andrews was promoted to his position as Executive Vice President of Kroenke Sports Enterprises in April 2005. Andrews works with KSE President Stan Kroenke on overseeing the day-to-day business operations within KSE. These entities include: Pepsi Center, Denver Nuggets, Colorado Avalanche, Colorado Mammoth, Colorado Rapids, Dick's Sporting Goods Park and the historic Paramount Theatre in downtown Denver. He was very instrumental in creating TicketHorse, a separate KSE entity that is the ticketing provider for all of the company's teams and venues.

Andrews began his career in professional sports with the Denver Nuggets as an account executive in September 1990. Demonstrating his desire to learn other facets of the industry, he was put in charge of directing Game Operations in addition to his sales duties in 1991. Continuing his climb up the Nuggets hierarchy, he was promoted to Ticket Sales Manager in 1994. Due to his efforts, the Nuggets had their most successful sellout streak in franchise history, numbering 56 games during the course of the 1994-95 and 1995-96 seasons.

When it was announced that the Quebec Nordiques would be moving to Denver in 1995-96 to become the Colorado Avalanche, new challenges arose for Andrews. He is credited with designing and instituting the initial seating plans, innovative group sales programs, as well as advanced development of targeted telemarketing for season ticket sales. Under Andrews's leadership, the Avalanche sold out for more than a decade, including a 487 home game sellout streak.

A native of Colorado, Andrews is a 1983 graduate of Alameda High School and went on to earn a bachelors degree in Marketing from the University of Wyoming. He and his wife, Marlie, have two sons, Aaron and Trace.

MARK WAGGONER

Senior Vice President, Sports Finance - Kroenke Sports Enterprises

Mark Waggoner is responsible for all of the financial reporting aspects of the Denver Nuggets and Colorado Avalanche in conjunction with the NHL and NBA in his role as Senior Vice President, Sports Finance.

Waggoner oversees all financial transactions for both franchises and is responsible for developing and maintaining budgets, working with the teams on matters involving insurance and other benefit programs.

Waggoner originally joined the Denver Nuggets in 1986 as the organization's accountant following five years of service in the public accounting profession in Denver. He was then promoted to his current position in 2002. Mark also serves as the treasurer for the Colorado Avalanche and Denver Nuggets community funds.

A native of Ann Arbor, Mich., Waggoner graduated from Central Michigan University in 1980 with a B.A. in business administration. He proceeded to earn his CPA certificate in 1982.

STEPHEN STIENEKER

Vice President, General Counsel - Kroenke Sports Enterprises

Stephen L. Stieneker joined Kroenke Sports Enterprises in 2005 as vice president and general counsel, overseeing the company's legal operations and all compliance matters.

A graduate of the University of Virginia School of Law, Stieneker previously served Janus Capital Group as assistant general counsel, vice president of public affairs and chief administrative officer of investments.

He resides in Denver.

MARK WARKENTIEN

Vice President, Basketball Operations

Mark Warkentien joined the Nuggets in the summer of 2005 as Director of Player Personnel and was elevated to Vice President of Basketball Operations on Sept. 7, 2006.

During his tenure, the Nuggets have made numerous transactions while maintaining a high level of success. Included are the acquisitions of four-time All-Star Chauncey Billups and the up-and-coming J.R. Smith, as well as signing two-time All-Star Carmelo Anthony to a contract extension and re-signing Nenê.

In 2008-09, the Nuggets claimed the Northwest Division title, tied a team record with 54 wins and made their third ever appearance in the Western Conference Finals. Denver has qualified for the postseason for six-straight seasons - joining Dallas, Detroit and San Antonio as the only NBA teams to have done so.

Before making the move to Denver, Warkentien spent the previous 14 seasons in the NBA working in various capacities in the front office. He spent the 2004-05 season with the Cleveland Cavaliers as Director of Player Personnel and served as interim General Manager. Prior to moving to Cleveland, he worked for 10 years with the Portland Trail Blazers. In '03-04, he served as Director of Player Personnel after spending the previous five seasons as Assistant General Manager. He spent his first season in Portland as a scout followed by three seasons as the team's Director of Scouting. He began his NBA career with the Seattle SuperSonics, aiding the team as a scout from 1991-94. Since arriving in the NBA, Warkentien has never experienced a losing season.

Prior to joining the Sonics, he worked for 11 years in basketball operations at the University of Nevada – Las Vegas, where he teamed with current Nuggets assistant coach Tim Grgurich. At UNLV, Warkentien served as an assistant coach/recruiting coordinator as well as assistant athletic director. He helped build UNLV's team that went on to win the NCAA Championship in 1990.

He began his coaching career at Riverside City College and at Saddleback College before taking the reins of the women's program at UC-Riverside. Warkentien then returned to his alma mater, Cal-State Fullerton, as an assistant coach for two seasons and spent one year on the coaching staff at UC-Irvine before joining the staff at UNLV.

Warkentien, 55, is a 1976 graduate of Cal-State Fullerton and a native of Huntington, Ind. He and his wife, Maureen, have two daughters, Kreigh and Aubrie.

REX CHAPMAN

Vice President, Player Personnel

Former NBA sharpshooter Rex Chapman joined the Nuggets as Vice President of Player Personnel on Sept. 7, 2006.

During his tenure, the Nuggets have made three-straight playoff appearances. Most recently they collected the 2009 Northwest Division title while posting a team record tying 54 wins. Chapman has helped reshape the Nuggets roster, while maintaining a high level of success. The Nuggets join Dallas, Detroit and San Antonio as the only four teams in the NBA to make the playoffs in each of the last six seasons.

During the 2008-09 season, Chapman aided in the acquisition of four-time All-Star Chauncey Billups as the Nuggets went on to post the second-best record in the Western Conference (54-28) and advance to the Western Conference Finals for only the third time in team history.

Prior to joining the Nuggets, Chapman spent the 2005-06 season as a key member of the Minnesota Timberwolves' front office. Before moving to Minnesota, he was a scout and later Director of Basketball Operations for the Phoenix Suns. With the Suns, he played an important role in luring free agent – and subsequent two-time MVP – Steve Nash back to the club.

Chapman played in 679 games in his 12-year NBA career with the Charlotte Hornets, Washington Bullets, Miami Heat and Phoenix Suns. Originally the No. 8 overall pick in the 1988 NBA Draft by the expansion Hornets, he scored 9,731 points (14.6 ppg) and made 805 three-pointers in his career before retiring following the 1999-00 season. Chapman remains tied for the NBA record for 3FG makes in a playoff game (9). He was named to the NBA's All-Rookie Second Team in 1989, and finished third in the 1991 NBA Slam Dunk Contest as a part of All-Star Weekend.

He spent two seasons at the University of Kentucky before making himself eligible for the NBA Draft, after receiving All-American Honors in 1988. He was a consensus High School All-American and was named Mr. Basketball in the state of Kentucky at Owensboro Apollo High School.

Basketball is definitely in his bloodlines. His father, Wayne played for the Nuggets franchise (then known as the Denver Rockets) in the ABA in 1970-71.

Following his playing days, Chapman served as a commentator for TNT during the 2004 and 2005 NBA Playoffs.

Chapman and his wife, Bridget, have a one son, Zeke (16) and three daughters: Caley (15), Tatum (10) and Tyson (8).

JOSH KROENKE

Vice President, Team Development

Josh Kroenke is entering his third season with the Denver Nuggets and his second in the front office. As Vice President of Team Development, he is involved in every aspect of the organization's day-to-day operations. Kroenke is listed as the team's designated negotiator and plays a key role in all personnel decisions. He also was instrumental in the team's recent affiliation with the NBA Development League's Idaho Stampede. In addition to his roles with the Nuggets, Kroenke works closely with KSE's executive committee on multiple business operation issues, ranging from finance to marketing.

After graduating from the University of Missouri with a degree in financial management, he completed a six month internship with the NBA's League Office working in their Player Development Department. Upon finishing his internship, Kroenke worked as an underwriter for Lehman Brothers in their Global Real Estate Group where he assisted with the debt underwriting and securitization of numerous commercial real estate transactions.

Kroenke was rated a top 50 player nationally in high school according to several scouting services and helped lead the Rock Bridge High School Boys' basketball team to a No. 1 ranking in the state of Missouri as a junior. Kroenke received a full basketball scholarship to the University of Missouri, where he was named Academic All-Big XII First Team and selected team captain as a junior and senior.

Away from the Nuggets, Kroenke is involved in several charitable entities, including the Todd Peglow Memorial Scholarship Fund at the University of Missouri. He is also a major supporter of the Playing For Change Foundation, which is operated by his sister, Whitney, and benefits children worldwide through the building of schools that specialize in the teaching of music and arts.

TOMAGO COLLINS

Vice President, Media & Player Development

Tomago Collins is entering his seventh season with Kroenke Sports Enterprises and his second in the Denver Nuggets front office. He oversees the Nuggets media relations and NBA-mandated player programs departments. He is involved in most aspects of basketball operations, including personnel, marketing and business decisions. He also works closely with KSE executives and ownership on strategic planning.

Collins moved to Denver in 2003 to help launch Altitude Sports & Entertainment, the KSE-owned parent network of the Nuggets and Colorado Avalanche.

Prior to joining KSE, Collins worked as sports copy editor and features columnist for The (Louisville) Courier-Journal, and lead writer and editor for CNN International. He is a graduate of Yale College and is active in several education reform initiatives. He currently serves on the boards of the Playing for Change and Colorado I Have A Dream foundations.

GEORGE KARL

Head Coach

NBA coaching legend George Karl was introduced as the 19th head coach in Nuggets history on Jan. 27, 2005 and has since overseen one of the most successful era's in team history.

In just 4½ seasons, Karl's 225 wins are already the second-most by a coach in Denver's NBA history, while his .611 winning percentage is unmatched. His run of five-straight postseason appearances is the second-longest in Nuggets history to Doug Moe's nine-consecutive (1982-90). Denver joins Dallas, Detroit and San Antonio as the only teams in the NBA to make six-straight playoff appearances.

The 10th-winningest coach in NBA annals, Karl has amassed 933 wins in his 21 seasons in the NBA. In fact, of the nine men ahead of him on the all-time wins list, only four: Phil Jackson, Red Auerbach, Pat Riley and Jerry Sloan have a better winning percentage. He has also notched 72 career playoff victories, good for 12th all-time.

This past season, Karl guided the Nuggets to arguably the best season in team history. With an overall record of 54-28, Denver claimed the Northwest Division title and tied the team record for most wins in a season. With 54 wins, the Nuggets registered their second-straight 50-win campaign, making Karl the first coach in the team's NBA history to post back-to-back 50-win seasons. In addition, Karl recorded his 17th-straight non-losing season, third only to Pat Riley (19, 1981-02) and Phil Jackson (18, 1989-present) in NBA history. In the 2009 NBA Playoffs, Karl coached the No. 2 seeded Nuggets to their first Western Conference Finals appearance since the 1984-85 season before falling to the eventual NBA Champion Los Angeles Lakers (4-2).

In 2007-08, Karl and the Nuggets posted their first 50-win campaign since 1987-88, matching their third-highest win total in the team's NBA history (50).

In 2006-07, Karl led the Nuggets to a 45-37 mark, including a franchise-record 22 road wins. Karl remains the only Denver coach to have won 20+ road games in an NBA regular season (also won 21 road games in 2008-09). The Nuggets finished with the sixth-best record in the Western Conference – their highest finish since 1988-89 (sixth).

In 2005-06, Karl guided an injury-riddled Nuggets team to 44 wins and a Northwest Division title – the club's first division crown since 1987-88. He became the fifth coach in NBA history to lead at least three different teams to division titles (also Milwaukee and Seattle).

Another of his remarkable accomplishments in Denver came in 2005. After assuming head coaching duties in January, he engineered one of the greatest turnarounds in NBA history. When he was hired, the Nuggets were 17-25 and stood in 11th place in the Western Conference – a full six games out of the playoffs. Karl led the Nuggets to a 32-8 (.800) record and a No. 7 seed in the postseason. His winning percentage is the best in NBA history for a coach that took over in the middle of the season and coached at least 20 games. The Nuggets went 25-4 after the All-Star break, notching the fifth-best post-All-Star break record ever in the NBA.

During the 2004-05 season, Karl was named Western Conference Coach of the Month for February and March and finished fifth in voting for NBA Coach of the Year. He garnered 10 first place votes despite being on the bench for just over three months. He has earned nine Coach of the Month honors, which ranks as the fifth-most in NBA history.

Prior to joining the Nuggets, Karl served as head coach for the Milwaukee Bucks (1998-03), the Seattle SuperSonics (1991-98), the Golden State Warriors (1986-88) and the Cleveland Cavaliers (1984-86).

During Karl's tenure in Seattle, the Sonics averaged 59 wins per season and won 384 games – second only to Chicago during that span. He led the Sonics to three 60-win seasons, had just one losing month and never had a losing streak longer than three games. Only three coaches have led their teams to more 60-win seasons in NBA history: Riley (seven), Jackson (six) and K.C. Jones (four).

In five seasons in Milwaukee, Karl led the Bucks to a record of 205-173 and four playoff berths, highlighted in 2001 by the team's first trip to the conference finals since 1986.

One of the keys to Karl's success has been putting players in positions to succeed. During his coaching career, Karl's players have made 25 All-Star appearances, earned 15 All-NBA recognitions, made 11 All-Defensive teams and have won two Defensive Player of the Year awards.

Karl broke into coaching as an assistant with the San Antonio Spurs (then in the ABA) under Nuggets coaching icon Doug Moe. He landed his first head coaching position with the Montana Golden Nuggets of the CBA in 1980 and went on to become one of the most successful coaches in that league's history. A three-time CBA Coach of the Year (1981, '83 and '91), Karl compiled a 176-66 (.727) record in five CBA seasons. He led the Albany Patroons to a league-record 50-6 mark in 1990-91, including a perfect 28-0 at home. He also coached two years in Spain with Real Madrid.

In 2001, Karl was selected as the head coach of USA Basketball's 2002 World Championship Team that competed in the 2002 FIBA World Basketball Championships in Indianapolis.

As a player, Karl averaged 6.5 ppg and 3.0 apg over 264 games and five seasons between the ABA and NBA. He attended the University of North Carolina, where as a junior, he helped lead the Tar Heels to the 1972 NCAA Final Four, and during his sophomore season (1970-71), helped UNC to an NIT title. Although drafted by the New York Knicks in the fourth round of the 1973 NBA Draft, he signed with the San Antonio Spurs of the ABA.

Karl's foundation, Friends of Hoop, annually hosts King Holiday Hoop Festivals – high school basketball tournaments held in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King – in Seattle and Milwaukee.

A prostate cancer survivor, Karl is heavily involved with the American Cancer Society and the Prostate Cancer Education Council. He also has donated tickets to each home game for less fortunate families since his arrival in Denver.

He has three children – daughters Kelci and Kaci and son Coby, who spent the 2008-09 season playing for DKV Joventut Badalona in the Spanish ACB League. In 2007-08, Coby and George became just the third father/son duo to face each other in an NBA game and the first to do so in a postseason game as Denver took on Coby's Los Angeles Lakers in the first round of the 2008 NBA Playoffs.

ADRIAN DANTLEY

Assistant Coach

NBA legend Adrian Dantley is in his seventh season as an assistant coach with the Nuggets. Dantley works with players to refine their skills in the post.

One of the most prolific scorers in NBA history, Dantley racked up 23,177 points during his 15-year career, placing him 20th in NBA annals. He led the league in scoring in 1980-81 and '83-84, averaging 30.7 ppg and 30.6 ppg respectively. In fact, he averaged better than 30.0 ppg in four-straight seasons from 1980-84 and no fewer than 26.6 ppg from 1980-87. He holds the Nuggets opponent record for points in a game dropping 55 in Utah on 2/6/81.

Dantley appeared in 73 postseason games, averaging 21.3 ppg in those contests. He reached the NBA Finals in 1988, but his Pistons lost the L.A. Lakers in seven games.

Dantley's many basketball accomplishments include the NBA Rookie of the Year Award in 1977 and the NBA Comeback Player of the Year Award in '84. He earned All-NBA Second Team honors in '81 and '84 and was an Olympic gold medalist in '76. He was inducted into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in September, 2008.

Following a standout career at Notre Dame, where he was a First Team All-America selection in '75 and '76, Dantley was drafted by the Buffalo Braves after his junior season with the sixth overall pick in the 1976 NBA Draft. He went on to play for the Pacers, Lakers, Jazz, Pistons, Mavericks and Bucks.

Born in Washington D.C., Dantley starred at DeMatha High School in Hyattsville, Md. for legendary coach Morgan Wooten. He entered the coaching ranks as an assistant at Towson University from 1993-96. Before moving to Denver, he spent the previous two years as a studio analyst during Washington Wizards telecasts.

Dantley and his wife, Dinitri, have three children – son Cameron, a quarterback at Syracuse University and daughters Kalani and Kayla.

TIM GRGURICH

Assistant Coach

Longtime NBA veteran and highly respected assistant coach Tim Grgurich begins his fifth season with the Nuggets. Grgurich (GUR-gur-ich) brings 18 years of NBA experience to the Nuggets bench, including 12 with Head Coach George Karl.

Before joining the Nuggets, Grgurich served as an assistant in Portland (2004-05; '98-01), Phoenix ('02-04), Milwaukee ('01-02) and Seattle ('91-98). Grgurich has been on Karl's staff for six division titles and the pair made a trip to the NBA Finals together with Seattle in 1996.

The Trail Blazers also won a division crown with Grgurich on staff in '98-99 and reached the Western Conference Finals twice.

Grgurich spent 12 years as an assistant coach under Jerry Tarkanian at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas, preparing emerging NBA standouts such as Larry Johnson, Stacey Augmon, Greg Anthony, Armen Gilliam and Sidney Green. The Runnin' Rebels won the 1990 NCAA Championship and made three Final Four appearances while he was part of the program.

His coaching career began at his alma mater, the University of Pittsburgh, where he also was a three-year letterman in both basketball and baseball. He began as an assistant before assuming head coaching duties for five seasons, beginning in 1975.

Grgurich earned a physical education degree from Pittsburgh. He and his wife Kathy have two daughters, Jennifer and Suzanne.

JAMAHL MOSLEY

Assistant Coach/Player Development

Former local college standout Jamahl Mosley begins his fifth season with Nuggets and third as assistant coach/player development. In his role, Mosley assists fellow assistant coaches Tim Grgurich and John Welch with developing the skills and fundamentals of Nuggets players.

Mosley was a four-year letterman at the University of Colorado from 1997-01. Following his collegiate career, he played two years in Australia for the Victoria Titans, one year in Spain with Baloncesto Leon and one year in Korea.

JOHN WELCH

Assistant Coach

John Welch begins his fifth season with the Nuggets as an assistant coach. He assists Nuggets Head Coach George Karl with player development by focusing on individual teaching, fundamental skills and individual workouts before practices and games.

Welch joined the Nuggets after two seasons as an assistant coach/workout coach for the Memphis Grizzlies. Prior to his arrival in Memphis, he spent seven seasons as an assistant coach at Fresno State, serving under head coach Jerry Tarkanian, one of the winningest coaches in NCAA history. Welch joined Fresno State in 1995 and helped the Bulldogs to two consecutive NCAA tournament appearances, six consecutive 20-win seasons and seven straight postseason appearances. In 2000-01, he helped the Bulldogs to a 26-7 record, the second-most wins in school history; a school-record tying 13-game winning streak; and a Top 25 ranking during the second half of the season.

Welch, began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of Nevada – Las Vegas for three years including the 1987 season when the UNLV Rebels advanced to the NCAA Final Four. When the Rebels' season ended, Welch also served as a player and coach in the New Zealand Professional Basketball League from 1986-89. Welch returned to the collegiate ranks as an assistant coach at Long Beach State where he helped Head Coach Seth Greenburg guide the 49ers to a two-year record of 37-20 and a berth in the 1995 NCAA Tournament.

As a player, Welch spent three seasons at the University of Nevada and transferred to UNLV for his senior year. Welch played under Tarkanian for one year when the Rebels compiled a 33-5 record and advanced to the third round of the NCAA Tournament.

Welch was born on Feb. 17, 1963 in Portland, Maine. He attended Ranch High School in Las Vegas where he was an All-State selection. He and his wife, Jean, have a daughter, Haley, and a son, Riley.

CHAD ISKE

Assistant Coach/Advance Scout

Chad Iske enters his 11th season with the Denver Nuggets and his third as an assistant coach. Iske oversees the scouting of upcoming opponents and is responsible for the preparation of a game plan/scouting report for each game.

Iske began working with the Nuggets on the ground level, serving as an intern in the scouting department for the 1999-00 season. From there he worked as the team's video coordinator and scouting coordinator and began advanced scouting in 2004. He also scouted the CBA and D-League during the 2005-06 and 2006-07 seasons.

A graduate of Regis Jesuit High School in Aurora, Iske has volunteered as a coach in the school's high school and junior high basketball programs. He also served as an assistant coach for basketball and baseball at Bishop Seabury Academy in Lawrence, Kan. and helped start the Kansas Angels summer high school basketball program in 1997 – where he was the primary fund raiser and assistant coach in '97-98.

Iske, 32, graduated from the University of Kansas in 1999 with a degree in sports management. He currently resides in Denver.

STACEY AUGMON

Player Development Coach

Stacey Augmon begins his third year on the Nuggets coaching staff, serving as a player development coach.

Augmon joined the Nuggets following a 15-year NBA playing career. In 1,001 career regular season games, Augmon averaged 8.0 ppg and 3.2 rpg. He began his career with the Atlanta Hawks, who made him the ninth overall selection of the 1991 NBA Draft and earned First Team All-Rookie honors that season. He also played for Detroit, Portland, Charlotte/New Orleans and Orlando.

The Pasadena, Calif. native earned a reputation as the best defender in the country during a standout career at the University of Nevada-Las Vegas. Augmon was a First Team AP All-American as a senior and was honored as the nation's top defender each of his last three seasons. As a junior, he was a member of UNLV's 1990 National Championship team.

Augmon was also a member of the 1988 United States Olympic Team, which captured a bronze medal at the Seoul Olympics.

JIM GILLEN

Athletic Trainer

One of the top athletic trainers in the NBA, Jim Gillen is in his 19th season with the Nuggets. He is responsible for the treatment and rehabilitation of all injuries, in conjunction with the team's medical staff.

In addition, he serves as the team's travel coordinator and works closely with Strength and Conditioning Coach Steve Hess to monitor the Nuggets' workout regimen and diet.

Gillen traveled across town in 1991 to join the Nuggets after serving as the assistant athletic trainer for the Denver Broncos from '87-90. During his tenure with the Broncos, Gillen accompanied the team to three Super Bowls. He and Broncos Head Athletic Trainer Steve Antonopulos were named the NFL's Athletic Training Staff of the Year in '87.

Prior to joining the Broncos, Gillen was an athletic trainer for the AMI/Denver Broncos Sports Medicine Clinic in 1987 and served as the head athletic trainer at Overland High School from '82-86 and Aurora Central High School from '80-82.

After receiving his bachelor's and master's degrees from Fort Hays State (Kan.), Gillen was the head athletic trainer at Roosevelt High School in San Antonio before moving to Denver.

A member of the National Athletic Trainers Association and the American College of Sports Medicine, Gillen is a past president of the Colorado Athletic Trainers Association. He is also past Chairman of the NBA Athletic Trainers Association and is a recipient of the National Athletic Trainers Association 25 Year Award.

Gillen has served as an athletic trainer at three NBA All-Star Games, working the 2005 (Denver) and 2003 (Atlanta) contests as the head trainer for the Western Conference and the 1995 game in Phoenix as an assistant.

Has been honored with the Joe O'Toole NBA Athletic Trainer of the Year Award in 2002 and 2008 and was an athletic trainer for USA Basketball at the 2002 World Championships in Indianapolis.

Gillen established the Excellence in High School Athletic Training Award in 2003 given annually to the top high school athletic training program in Colorado. The recipient receives a monetary donation for supplies and equipment and is recognized at a Nuggets home game.

A native of Meade, Kan., his family includes daughter Rachel; daughter Jamee Ulitzky, her husband Josh and their children Joey, Jordan and Julia; son J.D., his wife Emily and their daughters Alexsis and Aspen; and daughter Amanda Lloyd and her husband J.

STEVE HESS

Assistant Coach/Strength and Conditioning

Keeping the Nuggets in top physical shape is the job of Steve Hess, the team's assistant coach/strength and conditioning. Hess oversees the team's weight training, conditioning, stretching and nutritional programs. He designed and arranged the Nuggets' sparkling weight room in the Pepsi Center and also designed functional pieces unique to the Denver Nuggets.

In his 13th season with the Nuggets, Hess creates and administers individual workout programs for each player throughout the entire year. He spends the majority of the off season working with the Nuggets players as well as other professional athletes, overseeing every aspect of their workout programs. He pushes them to reach their peak physical condition.

Hess is a part owner of FORZA fitness and performance center and is one of 10 trainers worldwide who sits on the Under Armour training council.

In addition, Hess has had much television experience and has been featured on NBA Inside Stuff and on The Eating Network. He also has his own workout segment on the Altitude Sports and Entertainment Network.

A graduate of Ithaca College (N.Y.), Hess received a master's degree in physical education with an emphasis on sports medicine and a bachelor's degree in exercise science fitness and cardiac rehabilitation in '91.

Hess lives to obtain peak performance in his own life. His wife, Alicia, is also a conditioning expert and the couple spends their time chasing their two sons, Jordan and Korey, around their home.

Requests for single game media credentials must be made at least 24 hours in advance and on Fridays for Sunday games. NO DAY OF GAME CREDENTIAL REQUESTS WILL BE HONORED, WITH NO EXCEPTIONS. Radio stations, television stations, magazines and weekly newspapers will be accommodated on a game-by-game, space-available basis. When applying for the first time, requests from magazines and weekly newspapers must be in writing on company letterhead and must include copies of the publications (if applicable). Those with season credentials who will cover specific games must call the Nuggets Media Relations Office to arrange for seating. Credentials must be visible to security staff at all times. The Nuggets reserve the right to revoke credentials at any time for any reason.

PRESS SEATING
Press seating at Pepsi Center is located in the following areas: courtside, above the vomitory between sections 130 and 132, at the top of section 130 and in the press box. A media-dedicated elevator can be accessed across from the doors to the Nuggets locker room. TV broadcasters will be seated courtside. Beat writers and visiting media will be seated above the vomitory. The home and away radio broadcast positions can be accessed via the club level. A Nuggets media relations representative will escort radio broadcasters to this position. Wireless internet is available throughout the arena.

PRESS PARKING
Press parking will be Lot E on the East side of Pepsi Center. From Speer, enter Pepsi Center at Chopper Circle. Lot E will be the first lot on your right. From Auraria Parkway, enter Pepsi Center at 9th Street. Follow the circular drive to the right and proceed to the East side of the arena. Turn left just past the Valet Lot. Lot E will be on your right.

PRESS ENTRANCE
The press entrance is on the East side of the arena. From Lot E, walk straight towards the arena through the Valet Lot. There is a set of green doors adjacent to the loading docks. The green doors are located between the main East entrance (large glass structure) and the loading docks, although they are closer to the docks. Media Will Call will be set up inside the press entrance. This is also the entrance for practice.

PRESS DINING ROOM
The press dining room is located in the press lounge. Food and beverages will be available to the working media two hours prior to the game through tip-off. The dining room is open for soft drinks at halftime.

WORKING PRESS ROOM
The working press room is located at court level on the West side of the arena. The working press room is equipped with telephones, wireless internet, electrical outlets, a stats monitor and a television for media use only. We must limit access to the working press room to media members filing stories. It is impossible to accommodate family, friends and guests. The Nuggets will rely on media members to maintain a courteous, professional atmosphere in the working press room. Wireless internet is available.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
Credentialed photographers may shoot from the baselines of the Pepsi Center floor in designated areas only. Photographers may not block courtside signage at any time. Free-lance photographers will not be granted credentials unless they are on specific assignment from a magazine or newspaper and there is space available. The Nuggets require a letter of request from an editor to verify any credential applications by free lancers. The Nuggets ask that photographers please be considerate of season ticket holders behind them.

STATISTICAL SERVICES
Game notes and other pertinent statistical information will be in the working press room 90 minutes before tipoff. Play-by-play, quarter, halftime and final boxscore sheets will be distributed in all press areas. Out of town scores will be delivered to broadcast crews on press row and will be displayed on scoreboards. Quote sheets will be available as soon as possible following the game in the press room.

INTERVIEWS
The visiting team's head coach will generally conduct post-game interviews outside the visitors locker room or in the visiting locker room's coaches lounge. Nuggets head coach George Karl will be available following a 10-minute cooling off period in the press lounge. Interviews with players are possible up to 45 minutes prior to the game and the locker room will be open 15 minutes after the game. Again the Nuggets will rely on the media to maintain a courteous, professional atmosphere in the locker rooms at all times. NO AUTOGRAPHS ARE ALLOWED DURING INTERVIEW PERIODS. Failure to comply with these rules may result in the forfeiture of your credential.

PRACTICE/SHOOTAROUNDS
Nuggets practices this season will generally begin at 11 a.m. at the team's Practice Facility within Pepsi Center. Shootarounds on gamedays will be at 10 a.m. Please contact the Nuggets Media Relations Office to arrange for any interview requiring one-on-one access. Media can call the Nuggets information hotline for up-to-date practice times and other information. The hotline number is 720-931-2057.

CELL PHONES
Cell phone use is prohibited in locker rooms.

JERRY SCHEMMEL
RADIO BROADCASTER

Jerry Schemmel enters his 18th season as one of the top announcers in the NBA, calling play-by-play for Nuggets home broadcasts.

Prior to joining the Nuggets, Schemmel was the play-by-play announcer on cable telecasts and back-up radio announcer for the Minnesota Timberwolves from 1990-92. He also spent a year as the deputy commissioner and legal counsel for the Continental Basketball Association (1989) as well as four seasons as the marketing director and radio/television voice of the Kansas City/Topeka Sizzlers (1985-89).

Beginning in 2009-10, Schemmel will also serve as the radio voice for the Colorado State University football and basketball teams. In the summer of 2007, he was the radio voice of the Billings Mustangs, a minor league affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds. He also spent one year as the Head Baseball Coach at Metropolitan State College of Denver.

A licensed attorney, Schemmel received his juris doctorate from Washburn University (Kan.) in 1985 after earning his bachelor's degree in Communications from Washburn in 1982. He is the author of the book, "Chosen to Live", which chronicles his survival of United Airlines Flight 232, which crashed in Sioux City, Iowa, on July 19, 1989.

Schemmel was recently honored by the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association as the 2007 Colorado Sportscaster of the Year.

JASON KOSMICKI
RADIO EXECUTIVE PRODUCER/ STUDIO HOST/ROAD PLAY-BY-PLAY

Jason Kosmicki enters his 14th season with Kroenke Sports Enterprises and serves as the Executive Producer and Studio Host for Nuggets radio broadcasts. For the second-straight season, Kosmicki will also handle play-by-play duties for Nuggets road games.

"Koz" joined KSE in 1996 after stints in Eau Clarie, Washington DC, Corpus Christi and Colorado Springs.

He attended the University of Nebraska-Kearney and majored in broadcast production and German translation while serving as sports director at the local radio station. While in college, he called games for numerous sports, including football and basketball.

Kosmicki enjoys golfing and fishing. The Nebraska native follows his home state Cornhuskers and resides in Thornton, Colo. with his daughter Jacque.

CHRIS MARLOWE
TELEVISION PLAY-BY-PLAY

Chris Marlowe begins his sixth year as the television play-by-play voice of the Nuggets on Altitude.

A veteran of six consecutive Olympic telecasts on NBC, Marlowe called play-by-play for NBC's coverage of Beach Volleyball at the 2008 Summer Olympics in Beijing, China. Prior to coming to Denver, Marlowe called Pac-10 Basketball for FOX Sports Northwest in addition to handling USC Trojan play-by-play duties for FOX Sports West.

Marlowe has called play-by-play for a variety of sports during his career, including basketball, football, soccer, volleyball, swimming, diving and gymnastics.

Prior to his announcing career, Marlowe excelled in athletics, playing basketball and volleyball at San Diego State University. In 1976 and 1978 he was voted the Most Valuable Player by USA Volleyball. Marlowe's athletic career culminated as captain of the gold medal-winning U.S. Olympic Volleyball team in 1984. The athletic honors continued with his induction into both the San Diego State Aztec Hall of Fame and the California Beach Volleyball Hall of Fame in 1994.

In the offseason, he resides in Denver, with his wife and two daughters.

SCOTT HASTINGS
TELEVISION ANALYST

This will be Scott Hastings 11th-straight season providing insight to Nuggets telecasts. Hastings has been broadcasting NBA games since 1993, including 15 seasons with Denver and four seasons with TNT.

An 11-year veteran of the NBA, Hastings was a member of the 1989 league champion Detroit Pistons and played for Denver from '91-93. A four-year letterman at Arkansas, Hastings was named Honorable Mention All-American as a senior in '82 and left as the school's second all-time leading scorer behind Sidney Moncrief with 1,779 career points. He was also recently inducted into the University's Sports Hall of Fame.

Originally drafted by the New York Knicks with the 29th selection of the 1982 NBA Draft, Hastings also played professionally for Atlanta and Miami in his career.

One of the most well-known media personalities in the Denver market, Hastings co-hosted a daily sports talk radio show for 13 years and served as the color analyst for the Denver Broncos for eight seasons.

A native of Independence, Kan., Hastings resides in Littleton with his wife, Judi, and their daughters Ashley, Allison and son Andrew.

NBA PLAYOFF FORMAT

Western Conference

Eastern Conference

Following are the playoff pairings:

1. Sixteen teams qualify for the playoffs: Eight teams from each conference, consisting of the three division champions and the five other teams in each conference with the best winning percentage during the regular season.
2. All rounds of the playoffs shall be a best-of-seven series including the NBA Finals. All teams will participate in the first round; there are no byes.

Note: The first four seeds in each conference will be given to the three division winners and the team with the next best regular season record, but these four teams will now be seeded in order of their regular season records. This change will ensure that the two teams with the best records in the conference will not meet earlier than the Conference Finals.

Achilles Tendon – The thick tendon at the distal portion of the calf that connects the gastrocnemius (calf) muscle to the heel.

Aerobic – Exercise in which energy needed is supplied by oxygen.

Anaerobic – Exercise without the use of oxygen as an energy source; short bursts of vigorous exercise.

Anterior Cruciate Ligament (ACL) – A primary stabilizing ligament within the center of the knee joint that prevents hyperextension and excessive rotation of the joint.

Anti-inflammatory – Any agent that prevents inflammation, such as aspirin or ibuprofen.

Arthroscopy – A surgical examination of the internal structures of a joint by viewing through an arthroscope. An arthroscopic procedure can be used to remove or repair damaged tissue or as a diagnostic procedure in order to inspect the extent of the damage or confirm diagnosis.

Atrophy – To shrivel or shrink from disuse, as in muscular atrophy.

Biceps – Muscles on the front of the upper arm responsible for flexing the elbow and shoulder.

Bone Scan – An imaging procedure in which a radioactive-labeled substance is injected into the body to determine the status of a bone injury. A bone scan is particularly useful in diagnosing a stress fracture.

Bruise – A discoloration of the skin as a result of an extravasation of blood into the underlying tissues.

Bursa – A fluid-filled sac located in areas of the body where friction is likely to occur, for example between a tendon and the underlying bone.

Cartilage – Smooth, slippery substance preventing the ends of bones from rubbing together.

Chondromalacia – Roughening of the articular cartilage. Best known for roughening of the on the underside of the patella, which can occur in any patellofemoral injury.

Concussion – Jarring injury of the brain.

Contusion – A tissue injury caused by a direct blow.

Cyst – Abnormal sac containing liquid or semisolid matter.

Dehydration – State resulting from loss of body fluid where fluid output (sweating) exceeds fluid intake.

Dislocation – Complete displacement of joint surfaces.

Fracture – Breach in continuity of the bone. Types of fractures include simple, compound, comminuted, greenstick, incomplete, impacted, longitudinal, oblique, stress and transverse.

Groin Strain – Strain to the muscles that work to adduct the leg.

Hamstring – Group of muscles that run from the buttocks to the knee along the back of the thigh. The hamstring muscles work to flex the knee and extend the hip and are often injured as a result of improper conditioning or lack of flexibility.

Hip Pointer – Contusion to the iliac crest.

Hyperextension – Extreme extension of a limb or body part.

Inflammation – The body's natural response to injury in which the involved site may display various degrees of pain, swelling, heat, redness, and/or loss of function.

Magnetic Resonance Imaging – Imaging procedure in which a radio frequency pulse causes certain electrical elements of the injured tissue to react. MRI does not require radiation and is very useful in the diagnosis of soft tissue, disc, and meniscus injuries.

Medial Collateral Ligament (MCL) – Ligament on the medial aspect of the knee that connects the femur to the tibia and provides medial stability to the joint.

Meniscus – Crescent-shaped cartilage located within the knee that works to absorb weight and provide stability.

Metatarsals – Five long bones of the foot, running from the ankle to the toes.

Microfracture Surgery – An orthopedic surgical technique that can help restore knee cartilage by creating tiny fractures in the adjacent bones, causing new cartilage to develop. It can be used to treat both degenerative knee problems as well as cartilage injuries, and has gained a high profile in the sports world in recent years.

Patella – The kneecap. The patella functions to protect the distal end of the femur as well as to increase the mechanical advantage and force-generating capacities of the quadriceps muscle group.

Patella Tendinitis – Inflammation of the patellar ligament; also known as jumper's knee.

Plantar Fascia – The tight band of connective tissue in the arch of the foot.

Plantar Fasciitis – Inflammation of the plantar fascia; associated with overuse or acute foot injuries.

Posterior Cruciate Ligament (PCL) – A primary stabilizing ligament of the knee that prevents backward displacement of the tibia.

Quadricep Muscles – A group of four muscles in the thigh that works to extend the knee.

Reconstruction – Surgical rebuilding of a joint using natural, artificial or transplanted materials.

Rotator Cuff – Group of four shoulder muscles responsible for moving the shoulder in internal and external rotation and assisting with overall shoulder stability.

Shin Splint – A catch-all syndrome describing pain in the shin that is not a fracture or tumor and cannot be defined otherwise.

Spasm – A sudden, violent and involuntary muscle contraction.

Sprain – A twisting, stretching, pulling or tearing of a ligament.

1st Degree: A stretching but no tearing of a ligament. Athlete may either return to play immediately or will miss very little activity.

2nd Degree: A partial tear of a ligament. Bracing may be required. Athlete may miss one to four weeks.

3rd Degree: A complete tear of the ligament. Depending upon the ligament involved, bracing or even surgery may be required. Athlete may be out of activity from three weeks to one year or longer.

Sternum – The breast bone.

Strain – The stretching, pulling or twisting of a muscle or tendon.

1st Degree: A stretching but no tear of the muscle or tendon. Athlete may either return to play immediately or will usually miss very little activity.

2nd Degree: A partial tear of a muscle or tendon. Athlete may miss one to four weeks.

3rd Degree: A complete tear of a muscle or tendon. Depending upon the muscle or tendon involved surgery may be required. Athlete may be out of activity from three weeks to one year or longer.

Stress Fracture – A hairline break in a bone usually caused by overuse.

Subluxation – Partial dislocation of a joint. The term usually implies that the joint can be returned to its normal position without formal reduction.

Tendinitis – Inflammation of the tendon and/or tendon sheath, usually caused by chronic overuse.

Triceps – Muscle on the back of the upper arm that is responsible for extending the elbow and shoulder.

Ultrasound – An electrical modality that transmits sound waves through an applicator into soft tissue in order to heat the area.

40 BYRON BECK

Jersey Number Retired: December 16, 1977

Byron Beck's name can be found next to the word "first" in several places in the Nuggets history books. He was the first player signed by the original Denver Rockets franchise in 1967 and fittingly, his was the first number retired by the Nuggets.

Beck, who played for the Rockets/ Nuggets from 1967-77, was one of the best pure shooters in ABA history, and his sweeping hook shot was a team trademark for its first 10 years.

The two-time ABA All-Star (1969; '76) never averaged more than 14.5 points per game in a season; nonetheless, he stands in sixth place on the Nuggets all-time scoring list (8,603) - a true reflection of his consistency. In addition, he ranks second in rebounds (5,261) and third in games played (747).

Beck always stepped up his play at crunch time. In the 1973 ABA Playoffs, Beck averaged nearly 20 points per night. In 1976, he helped lead the Nuggets to the ABA Finals. Beck appeared in 66 playoff games with Denver, posting a 12.8 scoring average - more than a point per game more than his career regular season average.

The former University of Denver star was a fan-favorite and his work in the community earned him considerable respect off the court. Beck was the leading Nugget in personal appearances and he was the Denver sports co-chairman for Labor Day's Muscular Dystrophy Telethon.

44 DAN ISSEL

Jersey Number Retired: April 5, 1985

The name Dan Issel became synonymous with the Denver Nuggets during his playing days from 1975-85 and it still is today. Nicknamed "The Horse", Issel is one of the most popular sports figures in Colorado history.

Issel never failed to respond when duty called and was one of the most durable players in pro basketball history. In his 15-year pro career, Issel played in 1,218 of 1,242 possible games.

When he retired in 1985, he left as the Nuggets all-time leading scorer and rebounder after notching 16,589 points and 6,630 boards. He still ranks among the top five in nearly every statistical category on the Nuggets all-time list.

One of the most prolific scorers in basketball history, Issel ranks seventh on the combined ABA/ NBA all-time scoring list with 27,482 points. He trails only Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Wilt Chamberlain, Julius Erving, Moses Malone, Michael Jordan and Karl Malone.

There was more to Issel than his on the court prowess, however. He was also a leader in the community. In 1985, the Professional Basketball Writers Association of America recognized that and presented Issel with the J. Walter Kennedy Award for community service.

In 1992, Issel returned to the Nuggets, this time as their head coach. He orchestrated a tremendous turnaround, taking a club that had won just 44 games in two years prior to his arrival and leading them to the NBA Playoffs in just two seasons. He re-joined the franchise in 1998 as General Manager and subsequently served as President and Head Coach until 2001.

"The Horse", a 1976 ABA All-Star and a '77 NBA All-Star, became the first Nugget to be elected into the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1993.

33 DAVID THOMPSON

Jersey Number Retired: November 7, 1992

Before there was Michael Jordan, there was David Thompson. Nicknamed "Skywalker", Thompson dazzled Nuggets fans from 1975-82 with his incredible leaping ability, crowd-pleasing dunks and seemingly effortless scoring ability.

In his seven seasons, Thompson racked up 11,992 points - good for third on Denver's all-time scoring list. In addition, he still ranks in the top five in nearly every major scoring category in Nuggets history.

After the Nuggets acquired his draft rights in 1975, Thompson made an immediate impact. In his first year, he captured ABA and pro basketball Rookie of the Year honors after averaging 26.0 points per game. He was also named MVP of the 1976 ABA All-Star Game.

Nothing changed when the Nuggets entered the NBA. "DT" was named to the All-NBA First Team in 1977 and '78 and he made three-straight NBA All-Star appearances, earning MVP honors in the 1979 contest. He is the only player to ever be named MVP in both an ABA and NBA All-Star game.

On April 9, 1978, the 6'4" guard poured in a career-high 73 points against the Detroit Pistons. The 73 points are a Nugget single-game record and are the third-most ever scored by an individual in a non-overtime game in NBA history.

Thompson was traded to Seattle in the summer of 1982, ending his illustrious seven-year career in Denver. DT was inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1996.

2 ALEX ENGLISH

Jersey Number Retired: March 2, 1993

Alex English's career can best be summed up with one word: consistency. In 10 of his 11 seasons with the Nuggets (1979-90), English averaged better than 21 points per game. In eight of those 11 years, he scored more than 25 per game.

When he departed as a free agent in 1990, English left as the Nuggets all-time leading scorer - having notched 21,645 pointss - and his career average of 25.9 ppg is the best in Nuggets history. He also ranks 11th on the NBA's all-time scoring list.

The eight-time NBA All-Star is also the Nuggets career leader in games played, minutes played, field goals made, field goals attempted and assists. Additionally, he ranks third in steals and fourth in rebounds.

In each of his first 10 seasons with the Nuggets, English finished among the top 10 in the NBA in scoring. In 1982-83, he became the first and only Nugget to lead the league in scoring with a 28.4 average. English also holds the distinction of leading the NBA in scoring during the decade of the '80s, after compiling 19,682 points.

A second-team All-NBA member in 1982, '83 and '86, English guided the Nuggets to Division championships in 1984-85 and '87-88.

Also a leader in the community, English was presented the J. Walter Kennedy Citizenship Award for community service in 1988. In 1985, he convinced NBA players to donate their shares from the All-Star game to Interaction Ethiopia, a relief fund.

He was inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1997.

432 DOUG MOE

Jersey Number Retired: November 7, 2002

Doug Moe was the face and personality of the Nuggets throughout the '80s - the most successful era in club history - serving as the team's charismatic head coach from 1980-90.

On Dec. 18, 1980, Moe assumed head coaching duties following the departure of Donnie Walsh. Over the next 10 years, he racked up 432 regular season wins and 24 postseason victories - both team records. He guided the Nuggets to nine-straight playoff appearances, including a trip to the 1985 Western Conference Finals, and two Midwest Division titles in '84-85 and '87-88. In '87-88, the Nuggets won a franchise-record 54 games, earning Moe NBA Coach of the Year honors.

Moe's "passing game" offense was one of the most feared in the NBA during the '80s. The Nuggets averaged no fewer than 114.6 ppg in each of his years and averaged better than 120.0 ppg for five-straight seasons ('80-85). In fact, the Nuggets led the NBA in scoring in six of Moe's 10 years in Denver.

Moe's clubs produced 13 All-Star selections and three of his players, David Thompson, Dan Issel and Alex English have been inducted into the Basketball Hall of Fame.

Affectionately known as the "Big Stiff", Moe began his career with the Nuggets in the ABA as an assistant coach on Larry Brown's staff from '74-76. During those two seasons, the Nuggets posted a 125-43 record and advanced to the 1976 ABA Finals.

He also served as head coach of the San Antonio Spurs ('76-80) and Philadelphia 76ers ('92-93) and compiled 628 career wins, the 19th-most in NBA history.

An unassuming crowd of 9,655 fans filed into McNichols Arena on Dec. 13, 1983, unaware that they were about to witness NBA history.

On this winter night, the Pistons and Nuggets battled back-and-forth in one of the most exciting games of all time. Detroit, led by All-Star guard Isiah Thomas' 47 points, overcame a horrendous night at the foul line (37-60) and outlasted the Nuggets, 186-184, in triple overtime. The game still stands as the highest scoring contest in league history.

What makes that mark even more incredible is that only two three-point field goals were made the entire night.

In all, six NBA records were broken including: most points, both teams, game (370); most points, one team, game (Detroit, 186); most players with 40-or-more-points, game (4); most field goals made, both teams, game (142); most field goals made, one team, game (Detroit, 74) and most assists, both teams, game (93).

All six still stand today.

DAVID THOMPSON'S 73-POINT GAME

On April 9, 1978, David Thompson became just the second player in NBA history (Wilt Chamberlain) to score more than 72 points in a game as he hit for 73 against the Detroit Pistons on the final day of the regular season at Detroit's Cobo Arena.

DT broke the NBA record for points in a quarter (32 in the 1st) and field goals in a quarter (18 in the 1st).

His 73 points still stand as the most scored by an individual in Nuggets history and are the third-most (Wilt Chamberlain, 100, Kobe Bryant, 81) ever scored in a non-overtime game in NBA annals.

Despite DT's heroics, the Nuggets lost, 139-137.

2009 DENVER NUGGETS 2010

MISCELLANEOUS

NUGGETS NBA COMMUNITY OUTREACH

The Denver Nuggets are committed to improving the lives of families and children in Colorado through a comprehensive program of education, health and fitness, community initiatives and special events. Our players, coaches and staff are active participants in the community, dedicating over 1,000 hours of their time off the court to visiting schools, hosting youth basketball clinics, lifting the spirits of young patients in the hospital and attending fundraising events that benefit Kroenke Sports Charities.

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

The Denver Nuggets are proud to support a number of youth programs that focus on education, health & fitness and teamwork. Every year, players and coaches can be found in the classroom using basketball principles to get students excited about school. The team is also committed to helping children with health and athletic programs by having the players and coaches share their knowledge about fitness and nutrition. The education, health & fitness and athletic programs of the Denver Nuggets include:

Read Team / Read To Achieve

Sponsored by Qwest Foundation, Read Team strives to promote literacy by encouraging second and third grade students to read for 20 minutes a day for 20 days in the months of January and February. Over 200 classrooms and well over 5,000 students annually participate in the program reading over one million words.

Nugget for a Day

Sponsored by The Children's Hospital, this program provides an opportunity for deserving children to spend a day as a special guest of the Denver Nuggets The program includes an exclusive behind the scenes tour of Pepsi Center, invitation to a closed Nuggets practice, game tickets, dinner in a suite and special recognition at the game.

Team Fit

Sponsored by The Children's Hospital, promotes healthy living habits among school-age children by providing fitness and nutritional information to help improve health and wellness.

"Nobody is perfect, except a kid."
"CHOPPER" TRAVAGLINI, Founder of Denver Nuggets Charities

FAN DEVELOPMENT

Junior Nuggets

The YMCA Jr. Nuggets is Colorado's largest league with over 10,000 participants. The Jr. Nuggets builds athletic ability and shapes leadership skills with the assistance of Nuggets players, alumni and coaches. The league is sponsored by Comfort Dental.

Prep League

More than 4,000 middle school students, who maintain a C average or better in each class, participate in the Denver Nuggets Prep League annually. The league includes volleyball, basketball, soccer, baseball, softball and flag football for boys and girls in the 32 middle schools of the Denver Public School system.

Denver Nuggets Skills Challenge

Each year, more than 5,000 children state-wide test their dribbling, passing and shooting skills for a chance to compete on the floor at Pepsi Center before a Nuggets game. The competition takes place at area elementary schools and more than 50 Colorado Parks and Recreation Centers across the state. The program is sponsored by Colorado Beef Council, Comfort Dental and Dick's Sporting Goods.

For more information on the Community Relations programs, call 303 405-1104.

Special Olympics Basketball Clinic

Each season, 125 Special Olympics athletes throughout the state join the entire Nuggets team, players and coaches for a basketball skills clinic. The clinic, sponsored by Comfort Dental, is unique among NBA organizations as each Special Olympic athlete has the opportunity to interact with each Nuggets player and coach. The athletes range in age from 8 to 80 years old and travel from cities throughout Colorado to participate in the event.

Open Practice

At the start of each season, the Nuggets host an Open practice event for 2000 elementary school students from Denver Public Schools. The program is sponsored by Comfort Dental, Humana, College in Colorado and Xcel Energy.

For More Information

For more information on Nuggets fan development programs and initiatives, please call 303-405-1107.

FUNDRAISING EVENTS

Each year, Nuggets players and coaches encourage giving by promoting, and participating in, the following charitable events, which benefit Kroenke Sports Charities:

Nuggets Bowling Ball - January 14, 2010

Fans are given the opportunity to meet and bowl with Nuggets players, coaches, dancers, ambassadors and SuperMascot Rocky.

Mile High Dreams Gala - March 19, 2010

The Mile High Dreams Gala is the signature fundraising event of the teams of Kroenke Sports Enterprises. Guests have a chance to spend an evening with players and coaches from the Denver Nuggets, Colorado Avalanche, Colorado Rapids and Colorado Mammoth.

NBA CARES

NBA Cares is the league's global community outreach initiative that addresses important social issues such as education, youth and family development, and health and wellness. The NBA, its teams, and players support a range of programs, partners, and initiatives that strive to positively impact children and families worldwide.

As part of the league's mission to demonstrate leadership in social responsibility, NBA Cares reaches communities through philanthropy, hands-on service, and legacy projects. Since the program's October 2005 launch, the league, players, and teams have raised more than $110 million for charity, provided more than one million hours of hands-on service, and built more than 425 places where kids and families can live, learn, or play in communities around the world.

NBA Cares reaches millions of children and adults through special programs like NBA FIT and Basketball without Borders. The league and its teams and players also promote environmental awareness and sustainability through NBA Green. During high-profile league events like NBA All-Star and The Finals, community outreach efforts use the power of sport to effect positive social change.

Thanks to strong partnerships with internationally recognized community organizations such as Make-A-Wish, UNICEF, KaBOOM!, Habitat for Humanity, Boys & Girls Clubs of America, Hands On Network, Special Olympics, the Global Business Coalition on HIV/AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria, and the UN Foundation, NBA Cares works to improve communities in need around the world.

For more information about the NBA's latest community outreach efforts, log on to: www.nba.com/cares.
